

5) USING A READY-MADE ONLINE MODULE FOR YOUR COURSE

---

(With thanks to Jorum)

Relevant for the following LLUK Domains:

- Domain A Professional values and practice
- Domain B Learning and teaching
- Domain C Specialist learning and teaching
- Domain D Planning for learning
- Domain E Assessment for learning
- Domain F Access and progression

Short description:

Use of 'Roles and Responsibilities of the Teacher' online resource from Hibernia College at:
<http://dspace.jorum.ac.uk/xmlui/handle/123456789/11512>

Situation:

Useable early in DTLLS / Cert Ed / PGCE programmes, and is ready to use. Needs suitable technical competence to set up for use with individual learners, but can be used selectively with groups.

Aims and objectives:

The package describes its content as follows:

'During this lesson, we will undertake an analysis of your role, responsibilities and boundaries as a teacher and also identify points of referral available to meet the potential needs of learners. As part of this, we will also review issues of equality and diversity and demonstrate ways to promote inclusion in the learning experience. Finally, we look at the need for record keeping in your role as teacher.'

Description:

- The module includes online content, activities and assessment which could be undertaken independently by trainees / participants

Assessment:

Learning about a variety of the required aspects of the roles and responsibilities of a teacher is incorporated within this resource.

Hints and tips:

- Teacher educator should view all the content before using with trainees / participants
- This activity can be used in all teaching contexts.

Other similar resources to choose from Hibernia College at:

<http://dspace.jorum.ac.uk/xmlui/handle/123456789/1/browse?value=Hibernia+College&type=author>